

Capitol Leadership

Capitol Leadership Join youth leaders from across the country at the nation's capitol to meet to develop your leadership skills, learn about government relations, and meet with elected officials. Capitol Leadership is open to all FCCLA members and advisers. Opportunities for Attendees

Training Objectives

Capitol Leadership is open to all FCCLA members and advisers. Attendees will:

- have the opportunity to participate in public policy development and advocacy training
- develop a state and local advocacy plan
- meet with members of Congress and Federal officials
- have the opportunity to explore the nation's capitol

Capitol Leadership vs. USA Phase II

- Planned and facilitated by the Leadership Training Team (FCCLA alumni) instead of TRI Leadership Resources.
- FCCLA embedded more deeply into training.
- More focus on leadership skills used in advocacy and public relations and current legislative topic training rather than state officer training.
- More adviser training opportunities including legislative training, leadership resources, and lesson plan creation.
