

“Creative Creations” Competition

The “Creative Creations” Competition will be held at The 2011 Ohio State Fair on July 29th, 2011. This is a competition where you will be able to think out side of the box to use your skills to create an appealing design using fruits, vegetables, nuts and seeds.

The theme for the 2011 Creative Creations Competition this year will be used in the designing of your nutritious creation. This year’s theme is a creation that somehow represents Lead, Serve, and Impact

The food in the creation is only to be made of fruits, vegetables, nuts and seeds. Participants are required to provide all of their own materials such as carving and garnishing equipment and food.

The Creative Creation will be completely made on site. This is a team event of 2 team members. Participants are also required to use at least five different fruits and/or vegetables in addition to seeds and nuts.

The Ohio FCCLA will provide a 36” by 18’ boards that that each of the creations will be created on. The participants must be signed in at the Youth Center by 8:30 AM, unless your creation requires more preparation, then participants may arrive as early as 8:00 AM on the day of the competition. All entrees will be given approximately 150 minutes for the competition, starting at approximately 9:00 AM on July 29th.
